

THE CRISPDM BLOG

The CRISPDM BLOG is hosted by Wordpress at <http://crispdm.wordpress.com> and administrated by the CRISPDM consortium.

To access, you must be a Wordpress user.

1) To register click on <http://wordpress.com/signup/>

The screenshot shows the WordPress.com registration page. At the top, there is a dark blue header with the WordPress logo and the text "WORDPRESS.COM". To the right of the logo, it says "Preferred Language: English" with a dropdown arrow. Below the header, there are navigation links: "Sign Up", "Features", "Support", "Story", and "Advanced". The main heading is "Get your own WordPress.com account in seconds". Below this, it says "Fill out this one-step form and you'll be blogging seconds later!". The form consists of three sections: "Username:" with a text input field and a note "(Must be at least 4 characters, letters and numbers only.)"; "Email Address:" with a text input field and a note "(We'll send your password to this address, so triple-check it.)"; and "Legal flotsam:" with three radio button options: "I have read and agree to the fascinating terms of service.", "Gimme a blog! (Like username.wordpress.com)", and "Just a username, please.". At the bottom of the form is a "Next »" button.

2) Select "just a username, please" unless you want to create your own blog.

Today, CRISP-DM is the industry standard methodology for data mining and predictive analytics. As the role of data mining and predictive analytics continues to evolve, however, so must the CRISP-DM methodology.

You can help guide this evolution by participating in the CRISP-DM Update. Members of the original consortium will be actively involved, but the initiative needs your involvement, too! Only with a broad-based effort will the updating of CRISP-DM techniques and processes meet the needs of all organizations involved in data mining today.

As a participant, you'll be among the first to benefit from refinements in the methodology. For example, you will:

- Have early access to ways to make data mining results more accessible and usable in your organization
- Ensure that the CRISP-DM process model addresses issues your organization has encountered when conducting data mining
- Enjoy the challenge of shaping what is becoming an increasingly important methodology for organizations in business, government, education, and scientific research You can participate by joining the CRISP-DM 2.0 Special Interest Group \(SIG\). Signing up for the SIG does not commit you to any cost or specific activity, but being a member gives you the opportunity to participate in the CRISP-DM Update at a level that matches your expertise and commitment to data mining.
